

The School Chronicle 2016

Convent of Jesus & Mary
Waverley, Mussoorie

About The Editors

Privileged after being handed the honourable positions of the school editors, we have put our heart and soul into the responsibility we have been given right from the beginning of the year, with the help of our teachers, who supported us each time we needed them. We proudly bring to you the 'WAVERLEY CHRONICLE' which is not just a single episode but a compilation of a million little chronicles. We hope our efforts make you smile a little, laugh out loud or just reminisce.

We start off with a bit about us, our journeys as proud students of CJM, Waverley and most importantly as Editors for 2016.

We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to Sana Munjal, Vice Captain of Enterprise and an Honorary Editor, for her contribution towards the Waverley Chronicle.

RIYA CHHIKARA

Waving goodbye to her parents, measuring her steps on the first day of school, the innocent Riya had an ambition to shine in all fields of life. Besides having a keen eye in studies she has a soft corner for some daily soaps. "YOU CAN NEVER CROSS THE OCEAN UNLESS YOU HAVE THE COURAGE TO LOSE SIGHT OF THE SHORE". With this as her motto she has always overcome difficult situations with ease and has always wanted to take up tasks that make her challenge her limitations and march ahead of the rest.

BHAVYA KHULLAR

Wiping her tears on the way to her dormitory little Bhavya entered the school with a great desire to show each one what she is capable of and has managed to carve a niche for herself in the hearts of teachers and peers alike. She dances gracefully and does what her instincts approve of.

"DON'T COUNT THE HOURS IN A DAY, MAKE EACH HOUR COUNT" with these words in her heart, Bhavya is here to make a difference.

YASHITA JAIN

Paving her way up to her classroom, Yashita always dreamt of making her school proud in every possible way. Showcasing great talent in oration and theatre, Yashita is a true blue 'Drama Queen'. "SOME INFINITIES ARE BIGGER THAN THE OTHER INFINITIES". Keeping this in mind she has bloomed as a student of Waverley and wishes to always keep the school banner flying high.

AMISHA SINGH

Amisha walked up the slope with her head held high at the gentle age of seven. As a student she has always strived to find the best in herself. She is a very keen badminton player, besides which she excels in all that she does. "To be successful in life you don't need a beautiful face or heroic body, what you need is a skillful mind and the ability to perform". With this motto on her mind she strives to be the best that she can be.

YASHASHWINI SANTUKA

Trudging her way up to school, with a mind full of curiosity and great ambition, Yashashwini joined the school when as a tween. With dancing being her pre-eminent talent she also excels in public speaking and Dramatics

"Fear doesn't shut you down; it wakes you up" She lives by these words and works towards overcoming all her fears and emerging as a winner in all fields.

JASLEEN GILL

Having joined Waverley in Class XI last year, Jasleen may look like just a novice but the petite girl is now a true blue Waverlite. She believes in the power of the pen and that unspoken words can move nations. She has a flair for writing as it helps her escape reality and express her opinions fearlessly. She stands by the words, 'IT'S NOT ABOUT NON-BELIEVERS; IT'S ABOUT FINDING BELIEVERS!'

GUESS WHO?

Can you guess which teachers use these trademark phrases?

1. No HOT PANTS allowed!
2. Abhi toh mein JAWAAN hun.
3. It is not POSSIBLE.
4. I LOVES you children.
5. Hard work is for DONKEYS.
6. If you put a dogs tail in a pipe and you take it out after 10 years it will remain TEDHA KA TEDHA.
7. I'm not SATISFIED.

Doomsday tomorrow...

If the world were to end tomorrow, here's what some Waverlites would be engaged in - things they would otherwise never be caught dead doing !!

Yana and Riya are singing.

Is Selena ever getting a Revival?

Aakriti and Alina are painting.

Prices going higher than the Monalisa.

Yashashwini, Tusharika and Shikha are on the race track!

Are they getting the Bolt?

Marilyn, Maria and Bharti are doing maths.

Well well, looks like a few more Ramanujans are on their way.

Purvi, Pragya, Prabkiran and Kaddu are dancing

Now that you've got the beat, can you imitate MJ? Busted.

Mansi, Nandini and Kangan are skimming through some novels.

We think J.K. Rowling should start writing a novel a day.

Avni and Raiza are the earliest to rise.

Watch out Shinchuan!

Sakshi and Shreya are acting

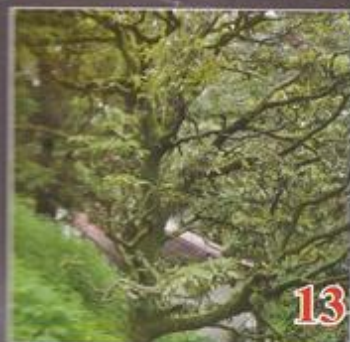

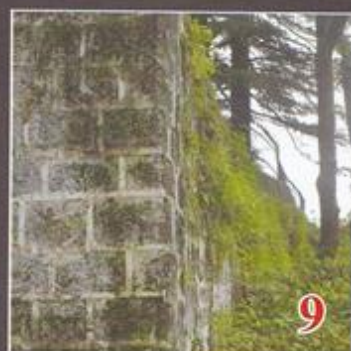

Should we warn Natalie Portman? Looks like she has competition.

Mysterious and lesser known places in and around Waverley. Can you guess where they are? The first one to guess all the places correctly gets a grand prize.

A Heart to Heart with a Waverley Icon, Mrs. Nikhat Khan

Eddies: Good afternoon ma'am.

Miss: Good afternoon. So what are you asking me?

Eddies: Would you like to tell us about your experience in Waverley?

Miss: It has been a long experience of 25 years now plus 6 years of schooling plus teaching before that for 2 years immediately after school. So it's been a long association with Waverley. Learning and embibing from the teachers and giving it back.

Eddies: A moment you'll never forget in Waverley.

Miss: It's very difficult to recall all.

Eddies: What is the major change you've seen in Waverley?

Miss: There have been many changes. The major change is the shift from class 10 to class 12. Gradually there has been a slight change in the students. Seriousness is not there maybe because of the CCE pattern.

Eddies: What's your reaction to sweet praises bestowed on you by the students?

Miss: I feel very happy. And I feel as if I have earned all that I needed to earn. because payment is not everything in money, it's the respect and love and affection that matters the most.

Eddies: What do you feel about the dressing sense of Waverley girls?

Miss: Waverley has always been known for its movement with time and the dressing sense is reflecting the times. (smiles) I may not approve of it.

Eddies: What would you do if you weren't a teacher?

Miss: (thinks hard) I would be a writer.

Eddies: Which genre do you prefer the most and what would you write?

Miss: What I prefer? (sits back) Romance!! Definitely I would write something I read. I would write romance because I don't read anything else.

Eddies: Which is your favourite novel?

Miss: Gone with the wind. The eternal favourite. I read the book about 7-8 times. And the movie, watched it in college and its an unforgettable experience. I'm particularly fond of western movies and books (lips curve into a nostalgic smile).
(bell rings)

Miss: I've got to be leaving now. Thank you girls.

Eddies: Thanks a lot miss. It was truly wonderful.

An Interview with a Stalwart

Mr. Ajay Raghuvanshi

Eddies: Good afternoon sir.

Sir: Don't ask me any controversial questions. Keep it simple.

Eddies: Please tell us about your experience in Waverley?

Sir: Its my 21st year in Waverley and I've seen lots of change. The biggest change is the upgradation of the school. A little change in the attitude of the students.

Eddies: Tell us about your funniest moment in Waverley?

Sir: Funniest moment? I don't remember the year but it was a morning and they made me an April Fool very badly. (sits back) and you know what did they use !! Toy potty. I was so shocked and was wondering how come it came on the chair. (laughs and puts on the spectacles). Later I realized it was a joke. But I laughed a lot.

Eddies: Sir which batch is it that you remember the most?

Sir: The batch which I had started teaching from class 1. The first batch after I joined the school in 1995. Right from class 1 to class 10, from the ages of 6 to 16, I have seen them growing up.

Eddies: What would you take up as a career if not a teacher?

Sir: Army!! (nostalgic) my first and last dream was always to join the defence services. But circumstances forced me to be a teacher.

Eddies: What would you like to change in the students of today?

Sir: I would like them to be more disciplined and respectful. I find that sometimes lacking.

Eddies: Sir what do you miss the most about the students when they leave?

Sir: Nothing. (laughs) Let me see. I really miss the naughtiness. It is always the naughtiest who are remembered the most when they pass out.

Eddies: How do you feel when children give you sweet comments?

Sir: I don't like sweetness. (smirks)

Eddies: Thank you sir. We enjoyed going through the tales here at Waverley.

The FASHION Palette

Whether it's stylish dresses, smokey eyes or waterfall braids; they rock it all. When it's time to dress up according to their wishes, Waverlites look like they have just stepped out of a fashion magazine. They are raising the bar by wearing both chick and trendy outfits or traditional couture. They are today's Fashionistas and tomorrow's Fashion Police.

MARK READING AND US..

By Dianoor De XII

'The Day of Judgement' sounds a lot familiar to 'Mark Reading' here at Waverley. When its time for the teachers to enter, every second following it is taken in the name of the gods above who we have now surrendered our sins to. As the class teacher calls out the names of the girls, you just wish they would have forgotten you while making the list or probably particularly your name was scratched by some heavenly monkey. Finally when it is your turn to have a clash with the Titans. The enmity of five past births is taken out and you are left with no Jedi in the world of Star Wars!

TIPS TO SURVIVE IN WAVERLEY

- Learn to speak up for yourself; don't expect others to speak up for you.
- The louder you are, the better.
- Make hay while the sun shines.
- You love oxymorons? No? Then you better learn that secrets aren't public.
- If bullied, don't TATTLE.
- Sharing your tea share with the seniors is always cool.
- Respect the fact that others are sleeping.
- Don't barge while walking, take it easy.
- It's a washroom, guys. Don't make it a facebook wall.
- Learn the spelling of the batch of 2016. Its ZENOLANTZ for God's sake.
- Don't make the bathing cell door your tabla.
- Don't grumble if English songs are on the TV.
- Learn to make the most of those rare outings by stocking up on food and books.
- Always keep yourself equipped with Pizza Sauce, cheese spread, oregano, Peanut butter and Nutella to make a simple meal a connoisseurs delight.

When killing em' with kindness doesn't work, use a hockey stick to show that maybe you are only one match but you can make an explosion.

Things Waverley has taught us...

- Loos can be your personal BBM
- Choosing the colour of your medicine
- Do it the Waverley way
- The Waverley cake
- Hygiene in its best form
- Piracy is the best hack
- Getting sick is a crime
- Never waste food from outside
- Your chair can pass for being the sleepwell
- Newspaper is your google chrome
- You can survive in Amazon very well
- Weekends can be your holiday packages
- You learn to put the suffix -fying (choorofying, jalofying, sarofying)
- To love English songs
